BATTLE RAGING IN VICINITY OF MUKDEN

Greatest Conflict of Far Eastern War Being Waged.

RUSSIANS HOLD THEIR POSITION

Small Villages in Vicinity of Mukden Are Captured by Mikado's Men—Indications Point to a Decisive Engagement in a Few Days.

Tokio, March 2.—5:30 p. m.—Advices from headquarters of the Japanese armies in Manchuria show that the Japanese activity on the extreme right continues. That wing is pressing forward and is dislodging the Russians.

A dispatch from the front says: "Our troops in Sing King (Yanden?) direction are occupying Tsing Ho chong (Tsinkhetchen?) is now pursuing the enemy northward. We captured quantities of provisions at Tsing hocheng.

"Our force at Henshashu is gradually dislodging the enemy from his position 13 miles northeast of Bentzia puse, and from another position 7 miles northwest. The first possession is 4 miles west of the second. Our force has pressed the enemy northward of the Shakhe river and has occupied Sunmupadzu, Thachinhutun and Sunhupatz, 3 miles north of Wai to mountain.

"The enemy has many field and heavy siege guns on either side of the railroad, heretofore unused, and is now shelling us."

General Kuroki's Headquarters, in the Field, via Fusan, March 2.—During the night Japanese infantry crept forward from the hills and took three small villages in front of Witosan, on the plain close to the river, which has been the scene of many outpost affairs. One column advanced northeast and captured the town of Kodales, 15 miles from Witosan. The engagement there was not severe.

Japanese Raid Town. New Chwang, via Tien Tsin, March 2.—A detachment of 400 apanese cavalry with one gun raided Simmintin about 20 miles west of Mukden, this afternoon; with the gun trained on the main street, the troopers ransacked the railroad buildings and Chinese inns.

Russians Maintain Positions.

Sakhetun, Manchuria, Wednesday, March 2.—A stubborn fight is waged on the left wing. Vigorous attacks of the Japanese on the village of Kudaza have been repulsed and the Russians maintained their positions, thanks to the intervention of a relief column which attacked the Japanese from the west after the passes had been occupied. This column was hard pressed by the Japanese and suffered great losses. It advanced in detachments to the neighborhood of Ubenupusa and was attacked three times during the night at 11 o'clock, midnight and 3 o'clock in the morning, but repulsed by the Japanese onslaught.

The enemy made a night attack on Katapul pass. At 2 a. m. the Russian advance vacated two outworks, which had been destroyed by the Japanese artillery, and retired to adjacent and better fortified positions.

The Japanese made an attack on Nan shanpu in Khandiansan district at 6 o'clock in the morning, but were repulsed.

Rider Haggard Arrives.

New York, March 2.—Rider Haggard, the author who comes here as a special commissioner to inquire into the conditions and character of the agricultural and industrial land settlement, organized in America by the Salvation army today on the steamer Tenthonic. The trustees of the estate of Cecil Rhodes, are paying the expenses of the inquiry to be made by Mr. Haggard, under the auspices of the British colonial offices, with the view of applying the scheme to South Africa.

School Ship Sails to West Indies.

Philadelphia, March 2.—After a delay of more than one month due to ice in the Delaware river and bay, the school ship Saratoga today started on a cruise to the West Indies. The ship was to have left this port Jan. 31. Captain Holman is in command of the ship, which has 80 boys aboard, 30 of whom are making their first trip. The Saratoga will visit St. Kitts, Santa Cruz, St. Thomas and Porto Rico, returning about May 1.

MEN FIGHT TO GET WORK.

Great Scramble Among 300 Men to Get Fifty Jobs.

New York, March 3.—A newspaper advertisement offering a day's work to fifty snow shovelers brought such a crowd of applicants to a point in Fifth street today that the police reserves were called out to quell an incipient riot which attended the scramble for work checks.

More than 300 men who had come in response to the advertisement were standing about the place soon after daylight when the man with fifty checks each of which would entitle the holder to a day's work, appeared on the scene. The sight of the checks was the signal for a rush in which every one of the 300 joined. Men were tossed right and left in the scramble to reach the holder of the checks and within a minute the last one of the bits of pasteboard had been given out.

This did not stop the trouble, however, and when the police reserves, who had been summoned at the first rush, appeared, more than a score of individual couples were fighting hand-to-hand for the right to shovel snow all day for $2.

MAN FINDS LOST MONEY.

Left $26,000 in His Hotel Room which He Gets Intact.

New York, March 3.—When several hundred miles outside of New York last night on a train speeding westward, E. B. Wilingham, a real estate dealer from Chicago, who had just left this city for the completion of negotiations connected with a large auction sale, put his hand into his pocket he discovered that his purse containing $26,000 was missing.

Of this sum $6,000 was in currency and there were two certificate checks for $10,000.

Willingham left the train at the first stop and caught the returning express to this city. Rushing to the room he had vacated a few hours before in a Broadway hotel, he searched for his treasure, but it was not there. Summoning the woman in charge of the lincns Wellington then inquired if his purse had been found. He learned that she had picked it up and carried it to the hotel office. There the owner found the money intact, and after rewarding the servant, he started out to resume his journey.

WILL BORE FOR OIL.

Company Organized to Try to Find Oil in Florida County.

Tifton, Ga., March 3.—The Henderson Oil company has recently been organized in Tifton and the chartered members are W. J. Henderson, J. E. Peoples, Dr. O. Daniel, of Tifton, and T. Tygart, of Nashville.

Some months ago Mr. W. J. Henderson, of Tifton, made a visit to Florida, and while the county of Washington discovered what he says is petroleum oil, and his samples that he returned with are so convincing that he found ready purchasers to go in with him and buy eighty acres of this land.

The company organized has placed 50 shares of stock on the market at $100 a share and propose to begin boring for petroleum within the next 30 days. It is stated that within one day's work by one of the chartered members that 35 shares of the stock has been placed. Those interested in the company are among Tifton's most prominent citizens.

Shot Pet Dog, Then Himself.

Memphis, Tenn., March 3.—After shooting his sister's pet dog, which was lying by his bed, Harry H. Carr, aged 31, a prominent business man of this city, fired a second bullet from his revolver into his own brain and sank dead upon a couch. Ill health is given by the family as the cause. No one was in the house at the time of the shooting. Carr's mother, who was returning from a neighbor's house, discovered the body of her son.

GETTING READY FOR THE INAUGURATION

Hotel Lobbies Crowded; Streets Filled With Strangers.

PUTTING ON FINISHING TOUCHES

Washington is Almost In Shape for the Inaugural Exercises—Doings of the Fifty-Eighth Congress in its Last Days.

Washington, March 3.—All the incoming trains today brought in large crowds of inaugural visitors. The hotel lobbies are crowded and the streets are filled with strangers. Governor Blanchard and staff, of Louisiana, were among the noteworthy arrivals today and numerous civic organizations came on the afternoon trains.

The committee on street decorations is working hard to put the finishing touches on its elaborate scheme of embellishing the line of parade.

In the Senate.

The senate began its session today by passing a bill for incorporation of the American academy in Rome.

When Mr. Bailey's resolution for the discharge of the conferees on the statehood bill was laid before the senate Mr. Bailey said:

"I understand that there is a bare hope of an agreement by the conference committee and so long as there is such a hope, I will not press the resolution."

The resolution remained on the table.

The sundry civil appropriation bill was then laid before the senate and the provisions which were passed over last night were considered. The first of these was that relating to the expenses of judges of circuit courts of appeals holding court outside their circuits. The house provision allowed "not exceeding ten dollars per day." Mr. Platt (Conn.) suggested a sub-providing pay for "reasonable expenses actually incurred for travel and attendance and making it applicable to all justices or judges who should attend the circuit court of appeals held at any other place than where they reside, not to exceed $10 per day."

The amendment was accepted, it was also another placing the same restriction upon the expenses of district judges holding court outside their districts.

In the House.

When the house convened today a number of members questioned the accuracy of the record last night on the mileage question.

Messrs. Dickerman (Pa.), Stafford (Neb.) and Macon (Ark.) declared that they voted against the proposition, whereas they were recorded in the affirmative. Mr. Lewis (Ga.) had been recorded as voting "Present," but he insisted that he was not in the chamber when the vote was taken while Mr. Dwight (N. Y.) protested against his having been paired in favor of the amendment.

The river and harbor appropriation bill was sent to conference with Messrs. Burton (Ohio), Doyener (W. Va.) and Lester (Ga.) as conferees on the part of the house.

The conference report of the agricultural appropriations bill was agreed to, which finally passed the measure.

The conference report of the agricultural appropriation bill was then taken up. The report was agreed to, which finally passed that measure. The house insisted on its disagreement to the senate amendments to the Panama canal zone government bill, and the bill was sent back for further conference. Messrs. Hepburn (Iowa), Mann (Ill.) and Adamson (Ga.) were reappointed managers on the part of the house.

Attention was next given to the conference report on the naval appropriation bill which represented only a partial agreement. Mr. Foss (Ill.) explained that the proposed increase of 1,200 officers and men on the marine corps was still in dispute. In so far as the conferees had agreed, the report was adopted.

Charged with Perjury.

Montgomery, Ala., March 3.—W. T. Paulk, a prominent citizen of Andalusia, Covington county, has been arraigned before the United States commissioner on a charge of perjury in connection with an affidavit made against Simon Carroll in a land case. He was bound over to the grand jury and was released on making the required bond.

MRS. STANFORD DIES OF POISON

Wife of the Late Millionaire Senator of California Victim of Plot.

Honolulu, March 3.—The chemists' report of the analysis of the bicarbonate of soda, of which Mrs. Stanford took a dose shortly before her death, states positively that the soda contained strychnine.

Mrs. Highton, wife of Henry E. Highton, well known in San Francisco, says that Mrs. Stanford cried when telling her of the attempt that had been made to poison her in the San Francisco, and that she could not conceive why any one should try to do so. During a discussion of spiritualism, Mrs. Stanford said she believed in spirits and intended to establish a department at Stanford university for the investigation of psychic phenomena.

Mrs. Bitner, her secretary, says in regard to the alleged attempt at poisoning in San Francisco that Mrs. Stanford drank a glass of mineral water with the bicarbonate of soda, the strychnine of which made her violently ill, so much strychnine being absorbed that the stomach rebelled and she finally recovered. Miss Berner says Mrs. Stanford's maid, May Hunt, agrees with her in their statements to the police that the bottle containing the strychnine was packed in San Francisco five weeks ago preparatory to coming here and that it remained untouched since then until it was opened last night by Mrs. Stanford herself before taking the dose.

On arriving here from San Francisco on the steamer Korea, Mrs. Stanford said that she had left San Francisco unexpectedly and in a great hurry. The police here will not express any theory regarding the unfortunate occurrence.

NEW YORK LEADS LONDON.

Statistics Show that Gotham's Death Rate is the Largest.

New York, March 3.—Health Commissioner Darlington has given out a comparative statement of the death rates of New York and London in which he says that there were 77,985 deaths in New York last year and 77,094 in London. The estimated population of both cities is New York 3,666,000; London, 4,684,000. The death rate per thousand is London 16.5 and New York 20.25.

New York had 5,195 deaths from accidents, while in London there were 4,068, but the Bloomsbury disaster added 1,000. Smallpox conditions here are much better than in London.

One great reason for the higher death rate in this city is that we draw from a greater area than London.

CONTEST FOR GOVERNORSHIP.

Of Colorado is Now Up to the Joint Convention of Legislators.

Denver, March 3.—Four reports were filed with Lieutenant Governor Geo. E. McDonald by the gubernatorial contest committee to be presented today to the joint convention of the general assembly, which will decide after hearing arguments whether or not Governor Alva Adams shall surrender his office to former Governor James H. Peabody, who contested the election.

Fourteen Republican members of the committee, a majority of 1, finally signed the report in favor of ousting Adams, but six of these committeemen declared that they reserved the right to vote as they saw fit after hearing the arguments in joint convention.

They said they signed the report merely to get the matter before the assembly.

Coachman Robbed of Savings.

New York, March 3.—Patrick Colwell, a coachman, has been assaulted and robbed of $4,600, the savings of a life time. Colwell was found unconscious in the barn under the feet of his employer's horses. He revived enough to say that two men had knocked him down with a brick. A. though seriously injured, Colwell will recover.

STRIKE SITUATION GROWS ALARMING

St. Petersburg Authorities At Their Wits End.

60,000 STRIKERS OUT AT MOSCOW

Authorities Believe that Some Hidden Agency is at Work to Prevent a Settlement of Labor Troubles—Czar Receives General Stoessel.

St. Petersburg, March 3.—The strike situation throughout has been rendered distinctly more critical by the bold demands of the St. Petersburg workmen yesterday, confronting the government again with the necessity of yielding everything in the face of a threat or of seeing all hope of a permanent settlement of the strike here and elsewhere through like agencies, dashed on the ground. But the worse feature of the situation is that the authorities are now convinced that the leaders of the workmen in pursuance of a deep political plan are managed by a shrewd hidden agency which is deliberately trying to prevent a settlement.

The authorities seem at their wits end, and in the meantime rumors are again afloat that the action of yesterday was preliminary to a big demonstration of Saturday. There are similar reports of a projected demonstration of workmen of Moscow to signalize the emancipation anniversary.

The police apparently do not know what to expect, but their general fear of the outcome is based on the discovery at Moscow and at Wirballen, Russian Poland, of quantities of bombs in many boxes, of which many have been smuggled into Russia, and it is reported that the demonstrations may be backed by the use of bombs against the troops.

The strike movement has suddenly assumed active form in the Ekaterinopol and Don Cossack governments.

All the miners of the Donetsk coal mines, numbering over 200,000, threaten to walk out on Monday.

General Stoessel was today received in audience by Emperor Nicholas, who invited him to luncheon.

Emperor Nicholas today replied to the recent address of the Moscow house, expressing attachment to the principal of autocracy, saying:

"In this year of grievous trial this evidence of loyalty to the old foundations of Russia's present life has given me special gratification."

According to reports from Moscow several rioters have been killed in conflicts with workmen of the Orechov Sulejovo manufacturing district. It appears that the fighting was between a faction who assaulted the manufacturers and others who intervened for their protection. Troops were dispatched to the scene of the disturbance. Another 10,000 men struck today in the large factories of the Viborg quarter of St. Petersburg.

60,000 Men Strike at Moscow.

Moscow, March 2.—The strike area in the city and suburbs is extending. There are now 60,000 men out.

Elbertas Safe in Alabama.

Flora, Ala., March 3.—The peach crop is thought to be safe at this place, where is located the largest single orchard in the state. D. C. Turnipseed, who is a large peach grower of experience, and owns the orchards here, said yesterday that he failed to find any trace whatever of the buds being hurt by the cold, and thinks the idea that the Elbertas are nearly all killed is a mistake. He says he is sure that if they are not killed later there will be a good crop of this as well as of other varieties of peaches in this section at least.

French Steamer Runs Ashore.

New York, March 3.—The French line steamer La Bretagne, outbound for Havre, is aground in the main ship channel near the southwest spit, New York harbor. After coming to a stop the La Bretagne displayed a signal indicating that she was not under control. The vessel was aground only a short time. She got free by power of her own engines at 12:12.

THE CHAUTAUQUA ATTRACTIONS

Drawing Large and Highly Appreciative Audiences.

PROGRAM OF MIRTH AND MUSIC

Prof. Charles Lane on the "Analysis of Laughter"—Miss Charlotte Cooke in Brilliant Violin Selections—Chicago Lyceum Ladies' Quartet.

The program of the Chautauqua of Friday was somewhat changed, owing to the fact that the lecture on the program was carried over until evening.

The afternoon program drew a large audience. The first number was a violin solo by Miss Charlotte Cooke, which was very pleasing and gave general satisfaction. Miss Cooke is a young lady of prepossessing appearance, has an easy and graceful manner and her selections show fine musical taste, while her bowing and execution of the difficult selections are very artistic. The repeated calls for another number was a compliment to her performances on the king of instruments.

The next on the program was the lecture by Prof. Charles Lane, his subject being "The Analysis of Laughter." Prof. Lane showed by his able handling of his subject that he is a thinker as well as a speaker, and the manner in which he delivered his address showed that he had spared no pains to give his hearers something good. He said that wit came from the head and will always laugh at you, and humor came from the heart and will always laugh with you. He amused his hearers with the many humorous stories and incidents he related in his inimitable manner, entering into the sublime at times. In closing he recited the following beautiful poem, "The Merry Heart":

The merry heart, the merry heart,
Of Heaven's gifts I hold the best;
And they that feel its pleasant throbs,
Though dark their lot, are truly blest.

From youth to age it changes not,
In joy and sorrow still the same;
When skies are dark and tempests howl,
It shines a steady beacon flame.

It gives to beauty half its power,
The nameless charms work all the rest;
The light that dances o'er the face,
And speaks of sunshine in the breast.

If beauty ne'er had set her seal,
It supplies her absence too;
And many a cheek looks passing fair
Because a merry heart shines through.

Evening Session.

The announcement of the grand concert of the Chicago Lyceum Ladies' Quartette and the lecture by Lou J. Beauchamp had a drawing effect, and it seemed as though the entire population of the city and surrounding country had turned out.

The concert was of a highly gratifying order, the quartette being made up of four well trained voices that were in perfect harmony, and the music was made up of numbers that brought out the sweetest effects of each arrangement.

The lecture of Mr. Beauchamp was up to the standard of this popular platform speaker, who left a most favorable impression with his hearers Thursday evening, and he is reckoned among the high-class lecturers by those who have expressed themselves regarding his efforts here.

Saturday's Program.

The program for today has many good things for the patrons. At 2:15 p. m. Miss Cooke will favor the audience with several violin selections, and at 2:30 Prof. Charles Lane is down for a lecture—"Talks and Talkers." At 8 p. m., the Chicago Lyceum Ladies' Quartette will give another of their grand concerts, and all lovers of music—should be present.

Had a Big Time.

Alachua Camp No. 5, Woodmen of the World, believe in having a good time once in a while, and Thursday night was one of the times. It was announced in ample time for all members to "get ready," that there would be a big oyster supper at this meeting, with the result that there was a large attendance, and the meeting resulted in a great deal of good.

The Woodmen are progressing nicely here, the order growing in membership at every meeting. It is an order which carries fraternal insurance and is becoming more popular every year.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root, pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

MODERN JERUSALEM.

A Sort of Topsy Turvy Land Where Living Is Cheap.

Life in Jerusalem according to Miss A. Goodrich Freer, the author of "Inner Jerusalem," is one of anomalies and anachronisms. The street arab speaks three or four languages. Apart from the tourists who are representatives of half of the nations of the world, there are Jews, Mohammedans and Christians. The streets of Jerusalem are unspeakably filthy. One can buy anything he wants in the city. There are even French dressmakers who will follow out the latest Parisian fashion. Water is scarce and mainly derived from cisterns. The rainfall averages only thirty or forty inches. There is a trade in good water, which comes from the village of Ain Karim, some three miles distant from Jerusalem. There is a most unpleasant wind, the sirocco, which is fatal to vegetation, "exhausting to the nerves, irritating to the temper, parching the skin and ruinous to the hair and complexion." The Jews are heavy. Jerusalem has its special diseases, but the cure is found in quinine.

Insect pests are the mosquitoes and most particularly the sand flies. One may keep out the mosquito, but the sand fly is at home everywhere. Clothing affords no protection. Flies are overabundant. Winter is more pleasant than summer. Sometimes on a winter evening a fire is necessary. After all, it is a land of perpetual sunshine, the mean annual temperature being 63 degrees. With all its sacredness, Jerusalem is described as a "topsy turvy land." In a holy place the native takes off his shoes and wears his hat. The men sport petticoats, and the women expose their legs, while hiding their faces. Carpets are hung on the walls and pictures on the ceiling. There is no apparent gratitude, for in Arabic there is no word the equivalent of "Thank you."

Living is cheap. A good cook can be had by the month for $8. Mutton is worth from 8 to 10 cents a pound, chickens about 25 cents a pair. Fruit is plentiful and reasonable. Considering the economy of living, the author expresses her surprise that so few English live in Jerusalem, "their number being insignificant when compared with the American residents." The population of the city is put down at 60,000, of whom 40,000 are Jews.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Charles F. Lemberger of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at all drug stores.

Men's Ways.

"I assure you I'm always willing to acknowledge my faults when I see them."
"That's all right, but I'll bet you never acknowledge them when your neighbor sees them."—Philadelphia Press.

RANK OF SAINTE-BEUVE.

He Was the Foremost Critic of the Nineteenth Century.

If we might credit Goethe to the eighteenth century few of those competent to judge would hesitate to call Sainte-Beuve the foremost critic of the nineteenth century. The qualifications of a critic of the highest rank are fourfold. First, he must have insight—genius, the essential gift of the critical faculty—and this Sainte-Beuve possessed abundantly. Second, he must have an abundant equipment—scholarship, knowledge of many things, so that he may compare one thing with another, comparison being a chief necessity of criticism—and Sainte-Beuve had an equipment unapproached by other writers of his century, and his erudition was as wide as it was deep, for he not only knew many things, but he also knew all about each one of them. Third, the critic must have disinterestedness, he must love veracity for its own sake, he must insist on setting forth the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and here was Sainte-Beuve's standard of honor, that as a critic he refused to be swayed by any of the social appeals to which most critics are only too ready to yield. He had a rigid independence, a sturdy individuality, a resolute freedom from party bias, although he is not always absolutely devoid of personal prejudice. And, in the fourth place, a critic needs sympathy, or at least he must have enough of it to enable him to understand and to appreciate men and women wholly unlike himself, and sympathy Sainte-Beuve had, although his share of this quality is not so full perhaps as his share of the other three qualifications for his great office.

He is the foremost critic of his century in the body and substance of his work. His contribution to literature looks big on the library shelves—some three-score volumes, more or less, all solidly documented, all alive with the play of his keen intelligence and all illuminated by his intellectual integrity. A thin book of poems and a stillborn novel must not be neglected, for in them it is possible to perceive the reason for Sainte-Beuve's occasional lapses from justice in his estimate of some of the poets and novelists of his own time and of his own language.—Brander Matthews in Century.

Kirby Smith Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held an interesting meeting at the home of the former president, Mrs. H. H. McCreary, Thursday afternoon, which was largely attended. The meeting was held for the purpose of installing officers newly elected, which were as follows:

Mrs. J. N. Strobhar, president; Mrs. Geo. W. Moyers, first vice-president; Mrs. J. F. McKinstry, Jr., second vice-president; Miss Maud Graham, recording secretary; Mrs. F. R. Seawell, treasurer; Mrs. John Chesnut, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. W. Taylor, registrar; Mesdames H. H. McCreary and J. E. Wainwright, historians.

Mrs. McCreary, the retiring president, in a few appropriate words, delivered the chair to Mrs. Strobhar, and her words were very impressive. Mrs. Strobhar replied in her usual clever manner. She is one of the most cultured ladies of the city, and what she had to say proved of great interest to those present.

Kirby Smith Chapter continues to prosper, and has one of the largest memberships in proportion to population in the State. The Chapter was never in better condition, financially and otherwise, and the members are grateful.

The famous monogram quilt, which has been under course of making for the past year, was reported finished, and the same was presented by the Chapter to Mrs. Turner Brewer, formerly Miss Willie Moyers, who has been so faithful as secretary to the Chapter. It was presented as a token of high esteem and regard to this lady, who has been always alert to the best interests of the society and the Chapter.

THE NEWS FROM WACAHOOA

People of That Thriving Section Are Happy—Personal Notes of Interest.

Wacahoota, March 2.—News is not quite so scarce since the severe cold weather has passed away, leaving the outward promises more plentiful.

The farmers in this section have commenced planting corn and cotton, the regular old stand-by.

Quite a number of the most successful cabbage growers in this section are very frank in saying that the expense of their 1905 cabbage crop will be their last expense in this line until the price of cabbage and the temperature of the weather climbs up a few notches higher.

Rev. H. C. Martin preached a very interesting sermon to the people at Wacahoota last Sunday. He is an able man and the people here are very fortunate in securing him.

J. W. May made a business trip to Gainesville yesterday.

The carpenters are nearing the completion of the elegant residence of J. W. Bradley.

M. Seigler, a very popular young man of Grandin, is spending a few days here with friends and relatives.

Miss Bessie Parker, one of the most charming young ladies of LaCrosse, spent a few days here last week with her friends, Misses Hassie and Jennie Smith.

There was a social entertainment in the vicinity of Wacahoota last Saturday night, which was highly enjoyed by all of the young people. We afterwards learned that lagrippe was not the only very narrow escape for some of the young men who came the most lengthy distance to attend this party.

Miss Georgia Mixson, one of Gainesville's most popular and charming young ladies, is spending a few days here as the guest of Miss Hassie Smith.

STILL LOVES "BUFFALO BILL."

Mrs. Cody Says She Wants To Be Re-United with Her Husband.

North Platt, Neb., March 3.—The wife of "Buffalo Bill" declared on the witness stand that she still loves the white-haired man who, as a dashing youth in big sombrero and high boots, won her heart 40 years ago.

Under the questioning of the lawyers, she had reviewed her entire married life, and her voice broke as she recalled the last Christmas day, now 13 years past, that her husband spent at their Nebraska home. He had seemed fond of her then, Mrs. Cody testified, and had kissed her an affectionate goodbye. They were married, she said, in St. Louis, when she was 22 years old. He wielded a whip over six and eight-horse freighting teams that traversed the Kansas plains and she followed him into the western wilds. He became a hunter of buffalo for the contractors of the Kansas Pacific railroad and his success gained for him the sobriquet by which he is now known all over the world.

Boy Pleads Guilty of Charge of Arson

Charleston, S. C., March 3.—Raymond Bowman, the white boy, who spread such terror with many fires until his final capture, plead guilty to the charge of arson in the court of general session. The evidence was convincing and the boy saw that his only hope of getting a lighter sentence rested in pleading guilty and asking the mercy of the court. The jury recommended the plea of mercy, and Bowman was saved from the gallows, which the law provides, except in recommendations of mercy. The boy set a number of fires in the space of about two weeks, causing a loss of $40,000. When he was arrested by Detective Brennen, he was about to take a train for Atlanta, Ga.

Vestibuled Train Wrecked.

Charlottesville, Va., March 3.—The two rear sleepers of the Washington and Southwestern limited left the train at Rock Fish, Va., 23 miles south of here on the Virginia Midland division of the Southern railway.

Mrs. R. C. Robinson, of Greensboro, N. C., had two ribs broken and Conductor M. T. Rust, of Alexandria, sustained a sprained knee and a bad scalp wound.

George W. Vanderbilt, of New York, and Brooks Morgan, of Atlanta, assistant general passenger agent of the Southern, were among the passengers.

Dispute of Women Close Factory.

New York, March 3.—A practical shutdown of six hat factories in Orange, N. J., has grown out of a dispute of a few women in their employ as trimmers. They have been idle for two days, but the men in the different departments were at work finishing the work in hand. This is done today and 6,000 men and women will be idle. The date on which the wage scale shall take effect has not been fixed.

Strikes Hidden Rocks.

When your ship of health strikes the hidden rocks of consumption, pneumonia, etc., you are lost if you do not get help from Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. J. W. McKinnon of Talladega Springs, Ala., writes: "I had been very ill with pneumonia, under the care of two doctors, but was getting no better, when I began to take Dr. King's New Discovery. The first dose gave relief, and one bottle cured me." Sure cure for bronchitis, coughs and colds. Guaranteed, at all drug stores. Price, 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

The Moon's Mission.

Some partisans of final causes have imagined that the moon was given to the earth to afford it light during the night, but in this case nature would not have attained the end proposed, since we are often deprived at the same time of the light of both sun and moon. To have accomplished this end it would have been sufficient to have placed the moon at first in opposition to the sun and in the plane of the elliptic at a distance from the earth equal to the one hundredth part of the distance of the earth from the sun and to have impressed on the earth and moon parallel velocities proportional to their distances from the sun. In this case the moon, being constantly in opposition to the sun, would have described round it an ellipse similar to that of the earth. These two bodies would then constantly succeed each other, and, as at this distance the moon could not be eclipsed, its light would always replace that of the sun.—Laplace.

Invaluable for Rheumatism.

I have been suffering for the past few years with a severe attack of rheumatism and found that Ballard's Snow Liniment was the only thing that gave me satisfaction and tended to alleviate my pains. March 24th, 1902. John C. Deanan, Kinsman, Ill. 25c. 50c. and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

CURED WHEN OTHERS FAILED

1036 Winnemac Avenue, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 25, 1902.

Wine of Cardui can always be relied upon to cure when everything else fails. It is a certain cure for female diseases in their worst forms. I suffered for years with ulceration. Intense pains in the womb and ovaries and dreadful headaches unfitted me for my work. Finally I grew so ill that I had to keep to my bed. The pains were so intense at times as to cause spasms and a disagreeable discharge drained my life forces. In my extremity after all else had failed, I tried Wine of Cardui. After using it for two weeks I began to improve so rapidly that I felt encouraged to keep up the treatment, which I did for eighteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was entirely cured. What a relief was mine and how new and beautiful life looked to me when my health was restored. Only those who have passed through such a siege of sickness as I have will understand how much I value Wine of Cardui. It is indeed a boon to sick women.

Frances Mitchell

Secretary, North Chicago Frauen Verein.

Every weak woman needs Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui cures disordered and painful menstruation, periodical headaches, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea. It cures extreme cases of these troubles. It strengthens girls approaching womanhood, helps bring children to barren homes, makes pregnancy and childbirth easier, prevents miscarriages and is the best medicine ever made for use during the change of life. Why permit the good women in your home to suffer another day? Every druggist has $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

BANKRUPTCY LAW.

The strong opposition to a repeal of the National bankruptcy law which has been developed by the House judiciary committee at Washington, will undoubtedly result in withholding for some time, at least, a measure upon the merits of which there has been put in evidence a striking difference of opinion.

As a general proposition the law commends itself, and its abolition would result in impairing confidence in the credit system of the country. Like all measures calculated for the betterment of public welfare, it has been abused. Unscrupulous individuals have taken advantage of the opportunities afforded to cast off the burden of indebtedness and escape obligations which should have been met, and they have succeeded in bringing the law into discredit among those thus mulcted. But to condemn it on these grounds alone would be manifestly unfair. Remedial legislation is rarely such that the benefits conferred on the many cannot be abused by a few, yet to seek the repeal of all measures that operate in this manner would result in wiping a considerable proportion of the statutes off the books.

There is no apparent desire on the part of any considerable number of honest business men who want only fair dealing between debtor and creditor that the law should be repealed. It has received the indorsement of the leading legal and commercial organizations of the country. It is far from a perfect measure, yet of undeniable merit, and its repeal would be a step backward.

The cover of The Designer for April shows a pretty girl holding converse with a pert Easter rabbit. Three handsome full pages in color are given, and the fashions and millinery are in perfect accord with the spring season. A special article is on seashore costumes for ladies and young folks. "The Millinery Lesson" tells how to make the new and picturesque "Envelope Hat." In the literary line there is an appropriate article on "The Flowers of Trees," by Craig S. Thoms; "The Largest Musical Club of American Women," by Lida Rose McCabe; "The Art of Pyro-Sculpture," by Jessie Garwood Fitts; "Concerning Cats and Erasmus," by Agnes C. Ruggeri; and "The Blue Pigeon," a short story by Winwood Waitt. Mrs. Gabrielle Jackson contributes an Easter tale, "Our Hearts Be Pure from Evil." Bertha Hasbrook, in "The Interest of Beauty," describes a gymnasium which may be bought for a dollar. A picture story of "Dorothy and the Easter Chickens" will please the tots, and the fancy-worker will find lace, embroidery, ribbon work and crochet to test her skill.

Portland's transportation facilities are excellent, and visitors will find it convenient to reach the main entrance to the exposition grounds of the Lewis and Clark Centennial, by three well-equipped double-tracked electric railroads.

It is reported that the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company has purchased a million dollars worth of valuable property in Atlanta to be used for railroad yards, their trackage in that city being too small.

LONG MAY HE WAVE.

The people of Marion county have been very busy for the past three or four weeks drumming up candidates to make the run at the special election for the position of State Senator, to fill the place of Hon. C. M. Brown, not yet made vacant by his resignation, but who is said to have emulated the example of the late lamented James G. Blaine and "writ" a letter, without the added postscript of "born this."

They have found a number who are willing to offer themselves up on the altar of the Twentieth district, comprising Marion and Sumter, and the last named county has some. But H. W. Long, when asked to make the sacrifice, declared he was otherwise engaged—had other business on his hands, and so Mr. Long goes on record as declining the honor that the people desired to bestow on him. Few men in this or any other commonwealth of the forty-six would pass up such an opportunity simply because he would rather hold the place of county commissioner and help make "good roads." But Mr. Long is the one man, at least, who has the interests of his county at heart, and when he has the good roads all completed he should be given a ride over them in an auto to the State capitol.

Long may he wave.

WILL EXHIBIT A DODO.

For some months past the curators of the National museum at Washington, D. C., have been endeavoring to discover new material for the exhibit at Portland, Oregon. They have at last succeeded in obtaining a perfect skeleton of the now extinct dodo, a giant pigeon which, in pre-historic times, inhabited islands of the Indian Ocean.

This rare find is the result of orders placed with London and Paris houses for zoological, anthropological and palaeontological specimens. The skeleton of the dodo was offered and accepted, and is now in the museum. It will be dispatched to Portland within a few weeks.

The dodo was a species of giant pigeon, which inhabited Reunion and the Isle de France in the Indian Ocean, in the days before Columbus, Magellan, Gama, or any of the other great explorers. Having no enemies with which to contend, the bird had degenerated until by the time the whites had arrived, it had lost both power of flight and defense. It readily fell prey to the whites, their cats, dogs, and pigs, which were early introduced into the Isle de France to the destruction of the island fauna.

Gov. Broward on Wednesday issued a commission certifying his appointment of Hon. James P. Taliaferro as United States Senator from Florida for the ad interim term. Mr. Taliaferro's commission expires on March 4th, and no provision is made for a re-election until the meeting of the Legislature in April except by appointment by the Governor, which was promptly made. Gov. Broward by courtesy appointing Mr. Taliaferro to fill the ad interim term.—Tallahassee Capitol.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

CAUGHT BY THE GRIP-- RELEASED BY PE-RU-NA.

"The World of Medicine Recognizes Grip as Epidemic Catarrh."— Medical Talk.

A Southern Judge Cured.

Judge Horatio J. Goss, Hartwell, Ga., writes:
"Some five or six years ago I had a very severe spell of grip which left me with systemic catarrh."

"A friend advised me to try your Pe-runa, which I did, and was immediately benefited and cured. The third bottle completed the cure."—H. J. Goss.

Cured in a Few Weeks.

Miss Jean Cowgill, Griswold Opera House, Troy, N. Y., is the leading lady with the Aubrey Stock Co. She writes the following:

"During the past winter of 1901, I suffered for several weeks from a severe attack of grip, which left a serious catarrhal condition of the throat and head."

"Some one suggested Pe-runa. As a last resort, after wasting much time and money on physicians, I tried the remedy faithfully, and in a few weeks was as well as ever."—Jean Cowgill.

Grip Resulted in Catarrh.

Miss Alice Bielke, Treasurer Young Women's Society of the Lutheran Church, Menasha, Wis., writes:

"I gratefully acknowledge the good that Pe-runa did me after I had been sick with la grippe which left me in a very weak and emaciated condition, with catarrhal trouble of the head and ears."

"My mother suggested that I take it to build up my strength and rid myself of the troublesome catarrh, and it acted with wonderful speed."

"I was able to resume my work inside of two months and I am in splendid health now."—Alice Bielke.

One reason why Pe-runa has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Pe-runa is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Pe-runa does not produce temporary results,—it cures.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

KNEW JONES' FATHER.

Captain Kelley Served in Confederate Army in Jones' Regiment.

Captain G. W. Kelley and Sam Jones "got together," to use the expression, Thursday, and for the first time in many years. It was a most agreeable meeting, since they had not seen each other for many years—when Captain Kelley held a commission in the Twenty-second Georgia regiment, of which Sam Jones' father was colonel, and Sam, then a boy of twelve years, was a marker. Strange to say, however, Mr. Jones as a youth remembered Captain Kelley as an officer, and for a time the two gentlemen, in which there is such a vast difference in age, enjoyed a pleasant chat together over "old times." They talked of various engagements, in some of which they were victorious, in others unsuccessful. Both were glad to meet, and their conversation over several episodes and incidents would have proved of deep interest to any person, as both have undergone thrilling experiences.

Kaiser's Gift to Harvard.

Cambridge, Mass., March 3.—The collection of models, charts, maps and books, which formed part of the German educational exhibit at the recent St. Louis exposition, has been presented to Harvard university by Dr. Theodore Lewald, the German imperial commissioner, acting on behalf of Emperor William. The gift, which represents recent improvements in the problem of social ethics in Germany, will be placed in Emerson Hall, the new philosophy building now under construction.

Threw Baby From Train.

Cumberland, Md., March 3.—Thomas Watson and Ira Criss, of Webster county, West Virginia, appeared before Squire M. Riley, of Clarksburg, and reported that Elizabeth Daugherty and Mary Thompson fought over Ellen Thompson, a 3-year-old child, while on the train in Webster county, and that they dashed the babe out of the car window as the train was running at a good rate of speed, killing the child instantly. The women are now in the Addison jail, in Webster county.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. E. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. Greenasher, attorneys in fact, they having been her guardians during her minority.

The Best Cough Syrup.

The absolute, unquestioned purity of

is another reason why you ought to use it. It is so pure—its leavening force is so great—that it takes only a heaping teaspoonful to a quart of sifted flour to produce the finest results. The lightest, whitest baking is sure to follow the use of Good Luck—lightest, because it generates most gas; whitest, because of its freedom from all adulteration. It is the least expensive, too—costs only 10 cents a pound. Send us your grocer's name if he doesn't sell Good Luck—we'll see that you get it.

Treat That Are Not Trout.

Dr. Theodore Gill of the Smithsonian Institution is calling attention to the misnaming of our native fish by early settlers instanced among others the trout. The pilgrims, floundering in New England streams a fish that reminded them of the trout of England, gave it the same name, although Frank Walton would have told them that it was not a trout, but a char. In Maine land-locked salmon and in certain lakes another salmonid fish were also called trout. In the south the name trout was given to black bass. In California a peculiar fish was named trout, apparently for no other reason than its possession of spots. The Gila river trout is not a trout at all.

How Some People Manage.

"I believe," said Mrs. Borrough, "that if I can get the use of Mrs. Noewald's shell cups and saucers next Friday and Mrs. Hilly will loan me her spoons and Mrs. Housekeep will let me have some of her nice oolong mixture—I believe I'll buy a pound of sugar and give a pink tea."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

How to Get Well.

Every organ of the body is directly connected with the brain by nerves. The nerve cells in the brain generate nerve force—power—and send it to the organ through these nerves, and this nerve-force gives life and action. The organs work perfectly when there is sufficient nerve power. Lack of nerve force weakens the action of an organ and it works imperfectly—becomes sick.

Two-thirds of all sickness is thus due to weak or deranged nerves; it is therefore advisable to take Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve, because it makes nerve energy.

When you cure the nerves you remove the cause, and that's the way to get well.

"Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve cured me of nervous prostration after every other effort had failed to give me relief. My trouble seemed to begin with a general loss of strength and a breaking down of the nervous system. I suffered from headache, constipation and fluttering or palpitation of the heart. My appetite failed and I was so nervous and restless that I could not sleep at night. My husband, who is a druggist, brought me a bottle of Nerve. It helped me from the start, and I continued using it until I had taken six bottles. My health was completely restored."

MRS. SULA M. MOOREHOUSE, North Adams, Mich.
Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

WESTMINSTER ABBEY

ROMANCE AND SECRET PLACES OF
THIS FAMOUS CHURCH.Mystery of the Door With the Seven Locks That Blocks the Entrance to the Chamber That Was at One Time the Treasury of England.

To the man who thinks he knows every nook and cranny of Westminster abbey it will probably be a surprise to learn that there are many of its most ancient and interesting parts of which he has never even caught a glimpse.

For instance, in the eastern cloister is an ancient double door so guarded against unauthorized intrusion that it can only be opened by seven keys, which are in the jealous custody of as many government officials. Five of the keyholes of this wonderful door, which, by the way, is covered with human skins, are concealed from view by a stout iron bar which traverses it.

This door gives access to a vaulted chamber known as the chapel of the Pyx, the walls of which were standing, as they stand today, before ever the Norman conqueror landed on the shore of Sussex. This chamber was once the treasury of England, to which were brought "the most cherished possessions of the state." The regalia of the Scottish kings and of the Holy Cross of Holyrood were deposited here; for many a year it served as a mint for coining silver and gold; it was, centuries ago, the scene of a daring robbery, when treasure valued at £100,000 (equal to two millions of present day English money) was taken from it, and today it contains, in addition to a stone altar, some old chests, one of which is said to have held the jewels of Norman kings.

Not far away is a passage leading to the little cloister, the arched walls of which were built under the eyes of Edward the Confessor nearly eight and a half centuries ago and which has echoed to the footfall of the first William and his mailed attendants. Hidden from view under the pavement are the bases of the original columns of the abbey, which have also stood since before the conquest, and adjoining the little cloister is a garden, shut off by high walls from the outside world, in which monks meditated and walked and prayed eight centuries ago.

At the southeast corner of the little cloister are the remains of St. Catharine's chapel, which was probably built within living memory of the conquest. The beautiful doorway which once gave access to it now serves as the entrance to one of the official residences, and in its walls are still to be seen traces of the high altar and a fireplace. Not far from this interesting relic of ancient days is a square gray tower which once served the grim purpose of a monastic prison and has also been the repository of the royal jewels (for many years it was known as the "king's jewel house") and acts of parliament. After all these centuries of existence it still has its uses, for in it are kept the standards of weights and measures.

Few who have explored the abbey have been privileged to inspect the chapter library, with its treasures of books and manuscripts many centuries old, or perhaps know that under the passage leading to the chapter house lies the dust of the first abbot of Westminster, who had his day when the confessor was king of England. The chapter house, which is open to the public, has, of course, centuries of interesting memories. It was originally the chamber where the abbot and monks used to transact their monastic business; for many generations the commons sat and legislated here before moving to the chapel of St. Stephen in Westminster palace, and in later years it was used as a storehouse for the public records, including the original Domesday Book. Beneath the chapter house is a crypt, the entrance to which is kept jealously locked and which seems to have served the purpose of a strong room to the Plantagenet kings, and not far from the chapter house is St. Faith's chapel, at one time the vestry of the abbey and in which the ancient and priceless altar plate of the abbey is kept.

Of peculiar interest is the Jerusalem chamber, which was built more than 500 years ago and was probably at one time the abbot's withdrawing room. It was in this chamber that Henry IV. died, in curious fulfillment of a prophecy that he should die in Jerusalem.

It hath been prophesied me many a year I shall not die but in Jerusalem. Which vainly I supposed the Holy Land. But bear me to that chamber; there I'll lie.

In that Jerusalem shall Harry die.

And in the same chamber Addison, Congreve and Prior lay in state before their splendid interment in the abbey.

A Courtroom Joke.

Lord Erskine, when chief justice of England, presided once at the Chelmsford assizes, when a case of breach of promise of marriage was tried before him in which a Miss Tickle was plaintiff. The counsel was a pompous young man named Stanton, who opened the case with solemn emphasis thus: "Tickle, the plaintiff, my lord." Erskine dryly interrupted him with: "Oh, tickle her yourself, Mr. Stanton. It would be no disrespect to my position."

Behind the Mask.

Nearly every shopkeeper in the land is forced in the conduct of his business to wear the mask of diplomacy. This was illustrated the other day in a Fifth avenue art store.

An elderly lady, connected with some of the best New York families, made her purchases and paid a small sum on account of a former bill and the goods just bought. As she placed the new bill in her reticule she said to the attentive shopkeeper:

"Now—er—no bothering me about this, you know; no sending around to my place. If you do send a man I'll set the dog on him."

"You'll not be troubled about it, madam," was the suave answer. "Take your time about it; all the time you want." And he smiled like a seraph until the old dowager's coach rolled off up the street. Then he turned to a friend who was taking it all in and muttered:

"Durn her old picture, I won't see a red cent of that money in nine months! But what can you do? You've got to be polite."—New York Press.

Gives Health, Vigor and Tone.

Herbine is a boon for sufferers from anemia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color becomes normal. The drooping strength is revived. The languor is diminished. Health, vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity results. Mrs. Belle H. Shirel, Middlesborough, Ill., writes: "I have been troubled with liver complaint and poor blood, and have found nothing to benefit me like Herbine. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime." 50 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

READ THIS.

Lexington, Tenn., June 5, 1901.

This is to certify that about March last I suffered intensely with my back and kidneys. Just prior to this I had undergone treatment for bladder trouble and was relieved, except the trouble. It was recommended that I try "Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery." I took one dose on retiring at night, and to my agreeable astonishment, I found myself relieved. One dose did the work. There is no bosh about this. It is wonderful.

Respectfully,

C. R. SCOTT, Proprietor Scott House, formerly county chief clerk, postmaster, etc.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

Capt. J. D. Riley of Jacksonville is in the city.

THE MINSTRELS WERE FINE.

Gainesville Military Minstrels Showed to Large and Appreciative Audience.

The Gainesville Military Minstrels, which appeared at the opera house last night, was one of the best amateur shows ever seen on the Gainesville stage, and would have done credit to the average professional troop. The large crowd seemed to appreciate the special work of the various artists, the specialties being especially fine.

Kennedy and Hale with the bones and Tench and Seagle with the tambos reminded one that he was seated before a professional quartette. Holly, as interloper, carried the part off to perfection, while the vocal work of the caste was one which was appreciated by the large audience. The first part was first-class, and all that could be desired, while the remainder of the program was in keeping with first-class minstrelsy.

The evening concluded with the laughable farce, "Hotel De Bughouse," which alone was worth the price of admission.

The entertainment was given for the benefit of the athletic association of East Florida Seminary, and everyone who attended did not only enjoy the occasion, but felt that they were helping a good cause.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Little Business Transacted by That Body Friday—Work of Grand Jury.

Little business was transacted in the circuit court Friday.

The court opened at 9 o'clock a. m., His Honor Judge Wills presiding.

The first case called was that of the State of Florida vs. Chas. Walker, breaking and entering. The defendant was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. Jury called and sworn and evidence submitted, when a verdict of not guilty was rendered and the defendant was released.

The next case was that of the State of Florida vs. Murray McNish, charged with assault with intent to murder. Defendant withdrew a former plea of not guilty and substituted a plea of guilty of simple assault, and was sentenced by the court to pay a fine of $20 and costs or spend three months in the county prison.

The grand jury came into open court and reported two true bills and two no-bills.

The case of State vs. Wm. Cromwell, assault with intent to murder, was next taken up. The case was continued at a late hour in the evening until today, when it will be concluded, should the jury reach a verdict.

CREATED A SENSATION.

N. R. Carter Writes Article on Negro Subject for Camp News.

Mr. Carter wrote about the negro in the South as he really exists, and his article seems to have created quite an impression among the readers of The Camp News in all sections of the country, as he has received many letters of congratulation upon the article.
